POST 1 · HOUSE CLEANING · TIP

Get guest-ready fast

Guests on the way and no time for a full clean? 🧹 Focus on what people actually see. Start with the entryway and the guest bathroom. Clear and wipe down kitchen counters, take out the trash and recycling, and open a window for a few minutes of fresh air. That's it! Want the whole house done before the holidays? Call [YOUR COMPANY] at [PHONE] to book.

POST 2 · HOUSE CLEANING · TIP

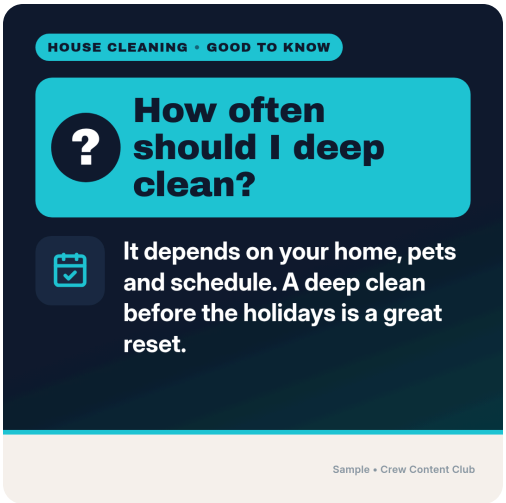

Cleaning product safety

Holiday cleaning means lots of sprays and bottles. Let's use them safely! 🧴 Never mix cleaning products, since some combinations can create harmful fumes. Read and follow the label every time, open a window or turn on a fan while you clean, and store products up high, away from kids and pets. Rather skip the scrubbing altogether? Call [YOUR COMPANY] at [PHONE].

How often should I deep clean?

Good question! 🧽 There's no single answer. It depends on the size of your home, whether you have pets or kids, and how busy your schedule is. A deep clean before big events, like the holidays or the start of spring, is a great reset. Regular cleanings in between keep it easy. Want a schedule that fits your home? Ask [YOUR COMPANY] at [PHONE].

POST 4 · HOUSE CLEANING · MYTH-BUSTER

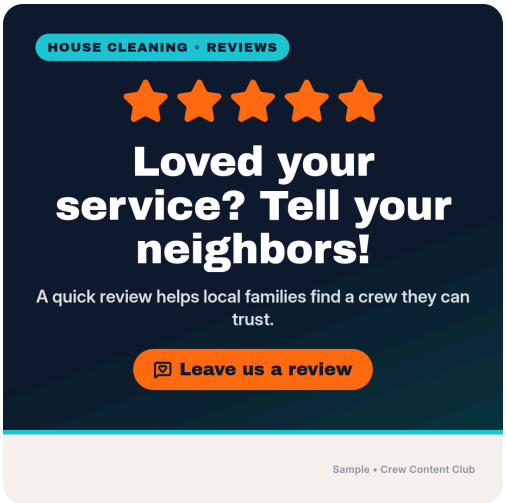

More cleaner = cleaner?

Myth: using extra cleaning product gets things cleaner. 🫧 Fact: too much product can leave a sticky film behind, and that residue can actually attract more dirt. More isn't better; following the label is. Use the amount the directions call for and wipe surfaces well. Want it done right without the guesswork? Call [YOUR COMPANY] at [PHONE].
